

Archi-Loom

Collaborative art project

Archi-Loom

Collaborative art project

A giant, interactive loom installation where everyone fills in the walls of the structure by weaving, and using recycled materials. What emerges is a large, slowly evolving collaborative art installation.

Suitable for

All ages

Subject areas

Visual arts, humanities and social sciences

To find out more, visit artslearningfestival.com.au