

Introduction to Electronic Music Production

Student workshop

Introduction to Electronic Music Production

Teacher workshop

Learn the basics of electronic music production, from mixing audio samples to programming virtual instruments and production techniques.

Suitable for

Teachers and their students

Subject areas

Dance, performing arts, Indigenous histories and cultures, professional learning and physical education

To find out more, visit artslearningfestival.com.au