

Social practice and education in contemporary art with Mary Mattingly and Kym Maxwell

Teacher workshop

Social practice and education in contemporary art

Teacher workshop

Join Mary Mattingly and Kym Maxwell in an informal discussion about the expanding role of social practice in contemporary art, their common interest in collaborating with young people, and their multidisciplinary approach to storytelling and performance.

Suitable for

Teachers

Subject areas

Visual arts, performing arts, critical thinking and culture and ethics

To find out more, visit artslearningfestival.com.au