

Power of Perception: Panel discussion

Live stream

Power of Perception: Panel discussion

Live stream

How do people from different professions and backgrounds see the world? Do we all see the same thing? How do our personal backgrounds, biases and experiences influence the way we see and interpret things – or even other people, our students? This session will demonstrate the diversity of perceptions and examine the role of personal and professional bias in our reading of images – and people.

Suitable for

Teachers

Subject areas

The Arts, Critical & Creative Thinking
